

Amsterdam to Budapest
Holly Foss
Foundry Gallery
March 31 – May 2, 2010

Share the enchantment of Europe's romantic Danube River, castle-studded landscapes and picturesque vineyards in 'Amsterdam to Budapest,' the duo-toned gelatin silver prints of Holly Foss showcased at the Foundry Gallery March 31 to May 2, 2010.

Holly presents panoramic views of fairy-tale castles, cathedrals and palaces of Holland, Germany, Austria, Slovakia and Hungary from her summer cruise down the Rhine, Main and Danube Rivers. Please join in our celebration at the Foundry Gallery opening reception Friday, April 2, 2010, 6-8 pm.

Holly Foss is a native of Washington, DC, having grown up in Chevy Chase, MD. She earned her BA at Wellesley College and also took classes at MIT. She has received grants from DCAC/NEA. Her photos were recognized as a Best Bet in "Around Town" on WETA/PBS and have been featured on Fox Sunday Morning News. Her shows have been written up in The City Paper and Georgetown newspapers. Her work is in private collections, DC Public Library Georgetown and the City Hall Art Collection.

Foundry Gallery
1314 18th St., NW, 1st floor
Washington, DC 20036
(202) 463-0203
Open Wed-Sun 12-6
www.foundrygallery.org